Overview

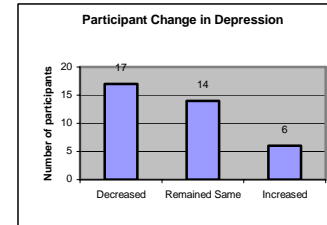

The mission of the Grays Harbor County Community Mobilization Services is to collaborate with community partners to effectively promote, improve, and protect the mental and physical health and safety of Grays Harbor County residents in a way that respects the cultures of our community.

Community Partners/Service Providers

- Grays Harbor County After School Program
- Educational Service District 113
- Grays Harbor County School Districts
- Grays Harbor County Sheriff's Department

Program Outcomes:

- ♦ High School Prevention Teams: Participants in the High School Prevention Team program experienced a slight but significant drop in feelings depression (from 1.9 to 1.7 on a scale of 1 to 4). Forty-six percent of participants decreased feelings of sadness, 38 percent experienced no change, and 16 percent had an elevation in their feelings of sadness.

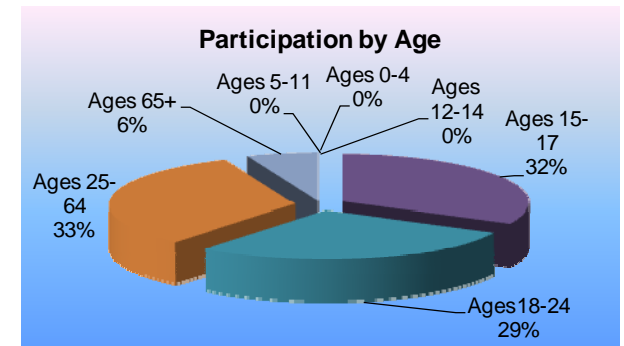

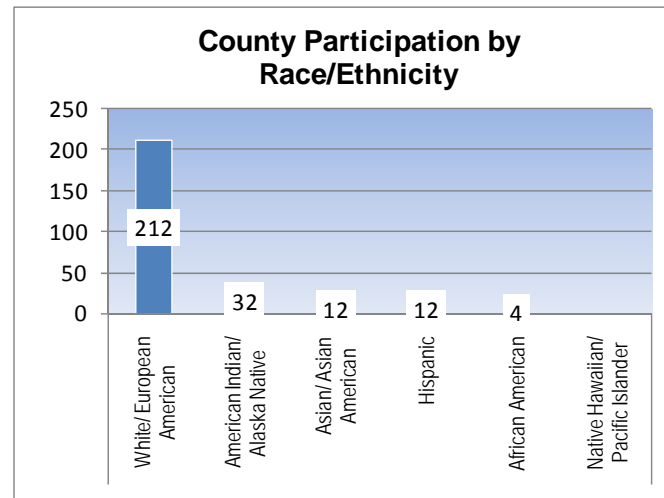

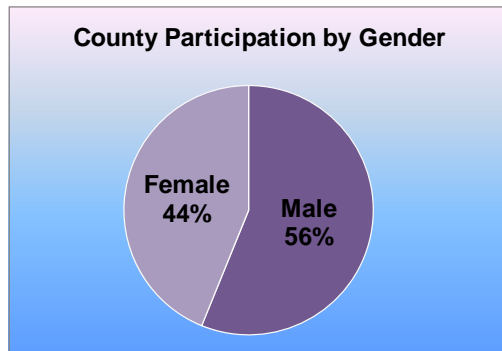

Program Highlights

- ♦ Prevention Convention: Youth from seven schools, totaling approximately 130 students, attended. Workshops included Impaired Driving (demonstrations using driving simulators), the Grays Harbor County Drug Task Force, Recovery Panels, Traffic Safety, Washington State Attorney General Rob McKenna (Key note speaker), Tobacco and Secondhand Smoke, Teen Health, and an MIP/DUI Impact Panel.
- ♦ Seven Grays Harbor County High School Prevention Teams: Activities on campuses and in the community included Leadership, Impaired Driving, Alcohol and Tobacco Prevention, and Methamphetamine/Other Drug Awareness activities.
- ♦ Brief Alcohol Screening Intervention for College Students (BASICS): A program that gives students personalized feedback regarding their risk for alcohol use and abuse.
