Clearinghouse news:

New online reporting and search tools. Many Clearinghouse subscribers have called or e-mailed wondering what has happened to the Bimonthly Update since earlier this year. I apologize for the delay in getting this data out to you. However, the delay is due to the implementation of some new tools that we hope will substantially improve Clearinghouse services to our subscribers.

Search the Clearinghouse database. Log on to www.cted.wa.gov/buc. Click on the “Search the Clearinghouse Database” link. There you’ll find a search form into which you can insert parameters to produce a printable list of bonds that meet your search criteria. You can view and print a copy of an individual Bond 101 form for each bond on your list, and download either copies of the Official Statements and Covenants (only available for some newer entries), or a form to request photocopies of the documents.

If you need to do a more detailed search using additional criteria, you’ll want to use our published spreadsheets. To find the spreadsheets, start at the main Clearinghouse page, www.cted.wa.gov/buc. Click on the “Bond User Documents” link on the left-hand navigation bar. Scroll down to the “Public

* State law requires issuers to submit a “Bond 101” report within 20 days of issuance (see page 2). Compliance is not universal, so data for recent months may be less complete.

Online Bond 101 Reporting Forms. By popular demand, the Clearinghouse has implemented an online process for filing Bond 101 information and Bond Cap Notifications of Issuance. Our hope is that our new system will save our reporters time as well as printing and mailing costs.

Bond reporters can enter bond data, print copies of formatted and dated Bond 101 submissions, and upload electronic copies of Official Statements and bond Covenants.

Three ways to get a user account for the online forms.

- If you have reported in the past, and the Clearinghouse has a current e-mail address for you, you have already received an e-mail invitation with log-in information. Just follow the log-in instructions in your e-mail.
- If you have reported in the past and you did not receive an invitation, it is because we don't have a current e-mail address for you. Contact me at 360-725-5021 or by e-mail at buc@cted.wa.gov. I will update your e-mail address in our system, activate your account, and give you a temporary password.
- If you are a new reporter, access the system at <https://fortress.wa.gov/cted/lgcdpbuc/>. Click on the "Register" link and walk through the registration process.

If you're not sure whether we have a record of you in our system, contact me prior to registering. This will ensure that our current records are attributed to the correct reporters. Your previous records are coded in the system using your e-mail address as your user name or a place-holder if we don't have a current address.

Finally, since this is a new system, we definitely want feedback from you regarding ease of use, and whether the system meets your needs and works as it should. We have already responded to user feedback with some tweaks, and we're prepared to tweak more if necessary to make it the best tool possible for our Bond 101 reporters.

Using the New Online Forms Successfully

1. Once your account is set up, every time you log in, you will have access to all the Bond 101 forms connected with your account. Let us know if any seem to be missing.
2. Before starting a new Bond 101 report, collect all your bond information, including all issuance costs.
3. If you have electronic copies of bond covenants and official statements, you'll be able to attach them to the form electronically, so have them ready on your computer.
4. General helps, including a glossary, are available by clicking on the "Help" link in the upper left of your screen.
5. Additional help, definitions, and formulas for particular items are available by rolling your cursor over the information icon ⓘ next to certain items.
6. Required fields are marked with an asterisk. The form will prompt you to fill out required fields before moving on.
7. Each of the form pages must be completed sequentially, but you'll be able to use the left hand navigation bar to move back and forth among pages you've already completed to edit them as needed.
8. Be sure to press the "Save and Continue" button at the bottom of each page once you've entered data, before moving on or going back, to ensure your data is saved.
9. For Bond Cap issuances, you may fill in just the first few screens of the form as the Notification of Issuance within the required three days, then return later to complete the rest of the Bond 101 information.
10. With this new system, you will be able to easily edit information at a later date. For example, if costs are estimates when you first file the Bond 101, you may return and edit the information when the costs become firm numbers.
11. You'll be able to print a copy of the Bond 101 and Bond Cap Notification of Issuance for your records when you're finished.

We cannot guarantee full compliance with state reporting requirements, so debt issue listings may not be exhaustive.

Bond issue reporting requirements

Chapter 39.44 RCW requires information on newly issued bonds to be supplied to the Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development (CTED) within 20 days of issuance. The underwriter submits information on a “Bond 101” report form available in as an online form or a MS Word form on our website, www.cted.wa.gov/buc. In cases where an issue is made without an underwriter, the issuer or its representative supplies the information. The issuer may opt to have an agent, such as an underwriter or bond attorney, complete the form or appropriate portions thereof. The following agencies have the responsibility of completing reports:

- ◆ A state fiscal agency, when it acts as bond registrar for an issue (with local governments supplying all necessary information);
- ◆ Local governments issuing debt for whom the state fiscal agency is not the bond registrar;
- ◆ State agencies issuing bonds.

The Bond 101 deadline dilemma:

Speed of submission versus completeness?

We know that submitting a Bond 101 form within 20 days is a tall order (see above for details on the state statute), particularly if the data you need isn't immediately available. So here are some rules of thumb to think about:

- Our new online system solves this dilemma for reporters who use it, by making it possible for you to enter the data you do have within the time limit, then return later to edit the figures when costs are finalized. Once you've clicked “Save and Submit” on the last page of the online forms, your Bond 101 is submitted on time, even if figures need to be updated later.
- If you aren't sure about whether a cost figure is final, be sure to designate it as an estimate. You can do this by checking the “Estimate” box next to the cost item in the online form.
- If you'd like your debt issue to be listed in the next monthly Excel spreadsheet of Bond 101 data and/or the Bimonthly Update, we need to receive your Bond 101 submission before the last working day of the month.
- We all get extremely busy at times, but we'd invite folks to develop the habit of moving Bond 101s off their desks promptly. Late submissions skew the data on which everyone depends — including your firm or agency.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Liz Green-Taylor at 360/725-5021 or buc@cted.wa.gov.

Table terms, A to Z

Debt type. Abbreviations include Com Paper (commercial paper), GO Bonds (general obligation), LID Bonds (local improvement district), Rev Bonds (revenue), TANs or BANs (tax or bond anticipation notes), COPs (certificates of participation), and IBWs (interest-bearing warrants).

Gross underwriting spread. This is the difference between the amount paid to the issuer for the bonds and the amount expected to be yielded when the bonds are resold on the secondary market. The total spread and cost per thousand are listed.

Interest rate. This is the reported net interest rate, and is calculated with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Aggregate Interest Payable (+Discount -Premium)}}{\text{Par Value of Issue} \times \text{Average Life}}$$

Issue number. This is the number assigned to an issue as it is being inputted into our database.

Issue series. Multiple issues are designated, and whether bonds are taxable. When multiple issues are reported on one Bond 101 form and have different interest rates, they are listed separately and issue costs are shown under the first issue number. When interest rates are identical, the entire series is listed under one issue number and par values totaled.

Maturity date. For issues that have multiple offerings, the date listed is the one farthest into the future.

New/refund/combo. This designates whether the issue is original, is intended to refinance existing debt, or is a combination of the two.

Par value. This is the amount of the principal or aggregate face value of the issue.

Principal user. In some cases the principal user will not be the issuer. An example of this arrangement is one in which a state agency (the issuer) issues a bond for a local government body (the principal user).

Sale date. This is the date of the bond sale. For a competitive offering it is the date of the bid opening. The date of sale for a negotiated offer or a private placement is the date of the signing of the bond purchase agreement.

Sale type. There are four categories: Neg Sale (negotiated sale), Comp Bids (competitive bids), Private (private placement), and Mini (mini bonds). Competitive bids are open to any underwriter. A negotiated sale is arranged with an individual underwriter. A private placement is a direct sale to one or more investors.

Voter approved? This designates whether the bond issue was approved by a three-fifths vote of the electorate.
