CR-101 (June 2004)

(Implements RCW 34.05.310)

Do NOT use for expedited rule making

Agency: Washington State Department of Commerce

Subject of possible rule making: Determination of the average greenhouse gas emission rate from new, commercially available combined cycle combustion turbines. This determination is to be made every five years after July 22, 2007. Rulemaking was last completed in March of 2013. See WAC 194-26

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW~80.80.050 Commercially available turbines – Rate of greenhouse gas emissions – Reports - Rules.

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish:

The intent of the rulemaking is to establish the average greenhouse gas emission rate from new, commercially available combined cycle combustion turbines which is referenced in RCW 80.80.040 Greenhouse gas emission performance standard – Rules. This section establishes the state greenhouse gas emission performance standard for utility baseload electric generation which becomes the lower of:

- a) One thousand one hundred pounds per megawatt-hour; or
- b) The average greenhouse gas emission rate as determined under RCW 80.80.050.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies: The Department of Ecology and the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council regulate fossil fueled thermal power plants in Washington state using RCW 80.80.040 and the emission value determined by Commerce under RCW 80.80.050. Commerce will work the Dept. of Ecology and the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council during this rulemaking process.
