Notes & Caveats

- The figures are for the 2001 fiscal year, which ended on August 31, 2001 for school districts; and December 31, 2001 for all other jurisdictions.
- The debt capacity in this report represents the statutory -- not constitutional -- debt limitations on local governments.
- The debt amounts shown do not include intergovernmental loans, such as offered by the Public Works Trust Fund, Department of Ecology, or U.S. Department of Agriculture.
- The report only includes jurisdictions that submitted completed surveys to the Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development. If a jurisdiction is not listed, no assumptions should be made about their debt status.
- Debt data has not been audited, and so should be read with caution. The Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development assumes no liability for any inaccuracies.
