

WASHINGTON STATE ENERGY STRATEGY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

---

August 25, 2020

Remote participation information will be provided for Advisory Committee members.

Members of the public can follow the meeting on TVW or via Zoom (please see further information on the 2021 State Energy Strategy website). Public participants are invited to provide up to two-minute statements via the Zoom call-in number at the end of the meeting.

Meeting Objective:

- Understand initial results from the deep decarbonization pathways analysis
- Discuss key take-aways from the deep decarbonization analysis for development of the Washington State Energy Strategy

Agenda

---

1:00-1:10 PM	Welcome and Overview <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Welcome and introductory remarks (Glenn Blackmon, Washington State Department of Commerce)</li><li>• Meeting objectives and overview</li><li>• Participation via Zoom and public comment</li></ul>
1:10-2:30 PM	Deep Decarbonization Pathways (DDP) Analysis and Initial Results <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Role of DDP in technical analysis and strategy development (Eileen V. Quigley, Clean Energy Transition Institute)</li><li>• Initial results from the DDP analysis (Jeremy Hargreaves, Evolved Energy Research)</li><li>• Advisory Committee questions &amp; answers</li></ul>
2:30-2:40 PM	Break
2:40-3:45 PM	Key Take-Aways from the DDP Analysis and Next Steps for the Technical Advisory Process and Strategy Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Discussion of key take-aways from DDP analysis for the energy strategy</li><li>• Next steps for informing work of Technical Advisory Process groups and strategy development</li></ul>
3:45-4:00 PM	Public comment Public participants are invited to provide up to two-minute statements at the end of the meeting