--------------	--

Participating Effectively via Zoom

- Advisory Committee members please show your video
- To reduce background noise, please mute yourself when you are not speaking
- During discussions, please let us know you'd like to jump in by "raising your hand" -- preferred rather than using chat

Public Broadcast and Listen-in Line

- This meeting will be recorded and posted on the Washington State Energy Strategy website
- Members of the public participating via Zoom are set up as attendees, meaning they will be in listen-only mode
- There will be an opportunity for 2-minute public comments at from 3:00-3:15 PM. At that time, members of the public who would like to comment should raise their hands that they would like time to speak
 - You may also submit comments to: energystrategy@commerce.wa.gov
- At the end of the meeting, there will be breakout sessions; recordings of the sessions will be posted on the Washington State Energy Strategy website

Technical Advisory Process (TAP) Update and Context -Setting

Wrap Up and Next Steps

Next Steps

Written Feedback: Please send to energystrategy@commerce.wa.gov by Tuesday COB, September 22

- Will post updated slides on Dept. of Commerce energy strategy website
- For each sector, welcome feedback on high-level strategies, strategy elements, and potential policies and actions
 - Where does it feel like these are on the right track? Where do you have concerns? Where would you suggest alternative approaches?
 - Direct feedback is most helpful
 - Will establish a way to share submitted input
- Also, welcome information about your organizations' goals and plans to promote sustainability, address climate risk, or reduce greenhouse gas emissions--identify how your organizations' actions would support or be supported by Washington's state energy strategy

Next Advisory Committee Meeting: October 15

Transition to Breakout Sessions

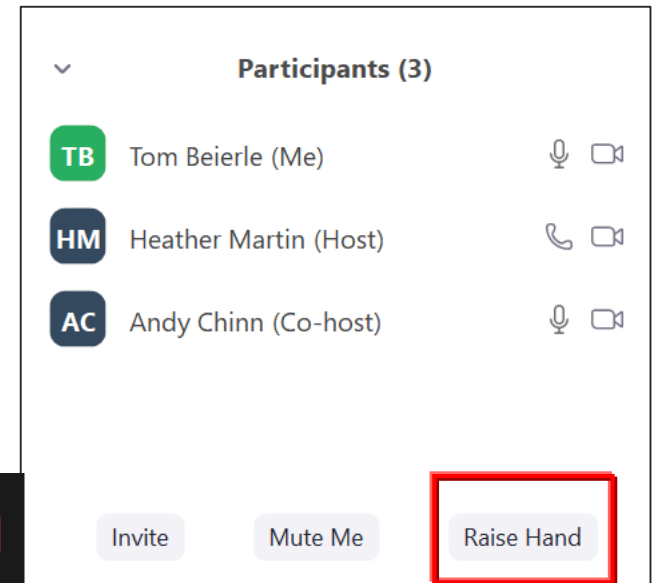

- Following public comment and a short break, please join small group breakout sessions at 3:30 PM (Zoom link sent by session leader)
- Purpose: gather additional insights, feedback, and questions within and across sectors

Public Comment

Instructions for Public Comment

- Members of the public that are interested in making 2-minute statements are invited to do so
- Please use Zoom to raise your hand if you would like to make a statement, and you will be unmuted
- To the extent possible, please frame remarks as comments rather than questions

- If you have a written statement, please send to: energystrategy@commerce.wa.gov
