

Keep Washington Working Work Group Agenda

Tuesday, May 10, 2022 | 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Agenda

Invitees: Keep Washington Working Work Group Members
 Commerce:
 Rick Anderson, Carolyn Busch, Tammy Deets

Objective
 Organizational development & small business assistance update

Check-in	Review agenda	3:00 pm – 3:05 pm
Work Group Structure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proposal for the $200,000 allocated in the 2022-23 Supplemental State Budget Job description for the KWW Workgroup staff-person Workgroup composition & recruitment (https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1B65hXNrLKxkc0SAuU_V91szz8qe2xvRFNo2kTYjs2Tg/edit?usp=sharing) 	3:05 pm – 3:35 pm
Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Policy update on the small business funding (implementation plans within Commerce)? 	3:35 pm – 3:50 pm
Engaging legislators:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Senator Saldana is pulling together a couple meetings with activists to review the KWW Workgroup recommendations in the 2022 report Senator Wellman expressed interest in pulling together some folks on the topic of immigrant workforce development, expressed interest in sponsoring legislation on credentialing and/or expanding the Welcome Back Center to eastern Washington Representative Slatter is open to a meeting with the Workgroup during the interim Rep. Gregerson, Sen. Saldana, Rep. Ortiz-Self all expressed interest in attending a future KWW Workgroup meeting
Next Steps	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Set up a small group discussions in the following week for interested individuals to think through next steps on the Report recommendations. 	3:50 pm – 4:00 pm